Course Overview and Goals
This course is designed to instruct graduate students in the basic diagnostic systems, research and explanations of psychopathology. Causes, course, outcomes and treatment of abnormal and maladaptive behavior will be discussed. Course content will also include biological, developmental, social, cultural and psychological perspectives.

II. Required Text

Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, 4th Edition (text revision). (2000). American Psychiatric Association; Arlington, VA. (Required)

III. Course Requirements
1. Class attendance is recommended. You and your peers will benefit from regular attendance and cooperation. According to APA policy, your behavior in graduate school requires ethical behavior as set forth in the APA standards. This includes your classroom behavior.
2. Keep up with assigned readings. Classroom discussion will depend on it. Your learning will be enriched by it. You are expected to read articles prior to class and be prepared to discuss the material in class. Readings will be provided to you by the instructor. I will randomly call on students to speak to the readings in each class session, to summarize the reading and engage in dialogue about it. Your activity in this regard will meet your requirement for class participation (see grading below).
3. You will be present for class tests and for the final examination. Your performance on the examinations will constitute the majority of your final grade.

4. You will write a term paper on a topic of professional interest to you, and one that is not covered in depth in the class (as reflected in the class topics below). I want everyone to have a different topic that is clearly identified with the psychopathology literature. I have posted deadlines below for you to present a topic to me and to provide an outline (with preliminary references). The paper must according to APA guidelines -- if not, they will NOT be graded. All papers are to be submitted to me via email in MS Word or PDF format.

5. You will present a 10-minute powerpoint presentation to the class on your term paper topic. You should anticipate an additional 5 minutes of questions and discussion. This will occur on the last class session.

Grading Policy

You will be graded on the following activities:

- Class participation = 10%
- Tests 1 and 2 (25% each) = 50%
- Final examination = 25%
- Class presentation of term paper = 5%
- Term paper = 10%

zl. Make-up exams will be given ONLY for Texas A&M University absences, which are listed at http://student-rules.tamu.edu/rules7.htm. To request a make-up exam, you must provide documentation substantiating the reason for the absence that is satisfactory to the instructor, within one week of the last date of the absence. Make-up exams may be different from the exam given in class and will be given on a scheduled date during the instructor’s office hours. For illness, documentation should include a note from a doctor or clinic. If the absence is excused, the instructor must either provide the student an opportunity to make up any quiz, exam or other graded activities or provide a satisfactory alternative to be completed within 30 calendar days from the last day of the absence.
¶II. Please turn off or silence cell phones and pagers during class. We understand that you may need to receive an important call, but we believe that you should respect your classmates and instructors enough not to interrupt class. Text messaging during class is similarly disrespectful, and we ask that you refrain from sending or reading received messages during class time.

¶III. Academic Dishonesty is simply a bad idea—don’t do it! The Aggie Code of Honor is in full force. Students found to be cheating or plagiarizing will fail this course. Plagiarism consists of passing off as one’s own ideas, words, writing, etc., which belong to another. You are committing plagiarism if you copy the work of another person and turn it in as your own, even if you have the permission of that person. If you have any questions concerning plagiarism, refer to the Texas A&M student rules, under the section “Scholastic Dishonesty” (http://studentrules.tamu.edu/rules20.htm).

¶E. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protections for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact the Disability Services in Cain Hall Room B118, (979) 845-1637. More information about Services for Students with Disabilities can be found at http://disability.tamu.edu.

Academic Integrity Statements
AGGIE HONOR CODE

“An Aggie does not lie, cheat, or steal or tolerate those who do.”

Upon accepting admission to Texas A&M University, a student immediately assumes a commitment to uphold the Honor Code, to accept responsibility for learning, and to follow the philosophy and rules of the Honor System. Students will be required to state their commitment on examinations, research papers, and other academic work. Ignorance of the rules does not exclude any member of the TAMU community from the requirements or the processes of the Honor System.

For additional information please visit: http://www.tamu.edu/aggiehonor

Students with special needs: Any student who could require assistance in the event of a necessary evacuation of the building in which this class is taught are asked to notify the instructor so that individuals can be identified to assist him/her during an examination.
